JAMES (JIM) MARSHALL, Manager

Jim had a tough decision to make when he was only 18 years old. Johnny Wooden was trying to recruit him for basketball at UCLA. Brick Laws, owner of the then Oakland Oaks, sought his signature on a professional baseball contract.

Marshall picked baseball, and became a man of distinction immediately: one of the youngest signees in the history of the Pacific Coast League. Before the Oaks completed their 1950 spring training in Mesa, Ariz., Laws optioned his youthful newcomer to Albuquerque in the West Texas-New Mexico League.

After Albuquerque finished its season, Jim was recalled to join his buoyant booster in Oakland. In this manner he drew a parallel with another Cub in the schoolboy sweepstakes. That would be Phil Cavarretta, who moved from Lane Tech High School to Wrigley Field after short stops in Peoria, Ill., and Reading, Pa., when he was only 18.

Boom-Boom Debut: Three Homers

Nine years later in 1958, Jim became a Cub; purchased in a cash deal from the Baltimore Orioles. He broke in with a bang, becoming an immediate hero with the Wrigley bleacher fans by hitting three home runs. The newcomer hit 2 in Game 1, and 1 in Game 2 in a doubleheader against the Phillies.

The Cubs continued their new Marshall Plan through 1959 before Jim and pitcher Dave Hillman were traded to the Red Sox for Dick Gernert. Although he was Red Sox property, he never played for the Boston club — recalling shades of a similar situation with the White Sox in 1957. Then he was White Sox property in title only.

Altogether he was owned by seven clubs, but only played for five as he moved from the Giants to the Mets to the Pirates after his tenure with the Cubs.

Japan Calls, Marshall Answers

After closing out his National League competition with the Pirates in 1962, Jim accepted an offer to play with the Chunichi Dragons in the Japan Central League. He remained for three years, twice topping the Dragons' search for Americans to hopefully powerize their game with 25 home runs and 75 RBI's.

"When I missed matching these figures during my third season with the Chunichi Club," Marshall explained, "I was ready to return home and become a manager."

Jim's first such opportunity came in 1968 when he managed Lodi in the California State League. Thereafter he moved up the ladder, managing in San Antonio, Tacoma, Wichita, and finally Chicago. Since becoming Whitey Lockman's successor July 24, 1974, the 43 year old skipper has led the Cubs to 100 victories: 25 in 1974 and 75 in 1975. Now Jim, a native of Danville, Ill., is in his second full season with the Cubs.

Title Qualifications

Qualifications for Batting Championship: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 appearances at the plate, which may include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, etc.

Qualifications for Pitching Championship: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

Qualifications for a Rookie: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a major league roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

COACHING STAFF

Jack wears many hats within the Cubs' organization. Besides his first base coaching duties, he's the infield instructor and works side by side with Manager Jim Marshall as an evaluator of young talent. An infielder during his playing career, Bloomfield also has worked as a scout and helped sign several players on the roster of the San Diego Padres. He launched a six-season playing career in the minors in 1955, and spent seven years in the Japanese major leagues. It was in this competition that Jack surfaced to a record .374 batting average in 1962.

Marv was the junior member of one of the foremost brother pitching twosomes in major league history. His brother, Lee, pitched for four clubs starting in 1934. Marv's career bridged six clubs, one of them twice, starting in 1946. His experience and knowledge as a pitching instructor is carrying into a 13th season with his fourth club — the Cubs. He was a 10-game winner for the 1954 pennant-winning New York Giants, and owns a National League record of 219 consecutive errorless games for a pitcher. He also won his only World Series game.

When Jim came to the Cubs before the 1975 season he was joining his second major league organization. Previously he had played and managed in the farm system of the California Angels. In addition to his direction of the bullpen, Saul is another valuable instructor on Manager Jim Marshall's coach corps. Jim was a player-coach for Marshall in Wichita in 1972. Saul played 14 seasons of professional baseball, leading all Pacific Coast League catchers with an amazing .997 fielding percentage — only three errors during the entire season — in 1963. Big Jim also managed the Angels' instructional league teams twice.

Harry brings 21 years of major-minor league experience to his new job: the Cubs' third base coach. The winter resident of Sacramento, Calif., spent the last seven years coaching for the Kansas City Royals. A catcher by trade, Dunlop devoted 14 seasons to playing, managing, and coaching in the minors. Twice he earned Manager-of-the-Year recognition in 1963 and 1967 with two clubs in the California State League: Stockton, and San Jose. Harry reached the zenith of his playing career batting .349 for Tucson in 1958.

THE 1976 CUB PLAYERS

WILLIAM GORDON (BILL) BONHAM 33

PITCHER. Throws Right. Bats Right. Born Oct. 1, 1948. Height 6:03. Weight 195. Married. Residence: Pacoima, Calif. Acquired: signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Bill peaked to high point of his career with the Cubs when he pitched a two-hitter against the Dodgers in Los Angeles May 20, 1975. Lee Lacy homered and Ron Cey singled for the Dodgers' only hits in the Cubs' 2 to 1 triumph. Bonham was involved in two other sparklers: a three-hit 7-0 shutout of the Montreal Expos May 7, and a six-hit 1-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates June 28. Altogether Bill won 13 games, tops for his first three seasons as regular starter for Cubs. He is considered to possess "one of the very best lively arms in baseball" by the game's foremost scouts. Bill led the club with 165 strikeouts, upping his career total of 567. Enroute to this impressive total, he enjoyed another red letter day: July 31, 1974, pitching in Wrigley Field against Montreal, Bonham struck out four Expo batters in one inning to finalize this entry into the record books. Pitcher Mike Torrez fanned, but reached first base on a passed ball. Thereafter the trim Californian struck out Ron Hunt, Tim Foli, and Willie Davis to complete his most unusual inning. Bill pitched only 26 games in the minors before joining the Cubs during his second season as a professional pitcher in 1971. Previously he lettered in both baseball and basketball at U.C.L.A.

BERTRAM RAY (RAY) BURRIS 34

PITCHER. Throws Right. Bats Right. Born Aug. 22, 1950. Height 6:05. Weight 195. Married, 1 son. Residence: Lawton, Okla. Acquired: signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Ray was the subject of one of the most unusual stories in the history of professional sports. He never appeared in a single game for the team he was originally assigned to because of his impressive performances pitching batting practice. Burris, then 22, was the Cubs' 17th round selection in the 1972 free agent draft. Following this selection, Ray was assigned to Bradenton, Fla., the Cubs' team in the Gulf Coast Rookie League. After a short stay devoted entirely to pitching batting practice, he was promoted to Midland in the Class AA Texas League. The wisdom of this rapid advancement was gleamed almost immediately with two winning records in the minors: 7-5 at Midland (Texas), and 4-3 at Wichita (Kansas) in Triple-A American Association. From 1-1 and 3-5 records during his first two promotions to the Cubs, Ray blossomed into a 15-game winner in 1975. He was the workhorse of the staff, pitching 238 innings in 36 games. Thirty-five of these games were starts, the third best total on the staff. He posted his first National League shutout May 26 vs. Atlanta, yielding only 4 hits in a 6-0 victory. He pitched another shutout June 23, anchoring this 6-0 success to six-hitting Montreal Expos. Burris is a graduate of Southwestern State College of Waterford, Okla., where he earned All-America status in baseball and lettered in basketball.

JOSE DOMEK (JUNIOR) CARDENAL 1

OUTFIELDER. Bats Right. Throws Right. Born Oct. 7, 1943. Height 5:10. Weight 150. Married, 1 daughter. Residence: Northbrook, Ill. Acquired: for Brock Davis, Jim Colborn, and Earl Stephenson from Milwaukee Brewers, Dec. 3, 1971.

Jose desired to make 1975 his best season ever, and it was "Operation Success" all the way for the youngish, 32-year-old, cunning Cuban. His 182 hits topped his entire 15-year major-minor league career. He batted .317, climbing over .300 a second time in the last three seasons. His lofty percentage enabled him to share eighth place in the National League hit parade with the Cincinnati Reds' Pete Rose, the switch-hitting MVP of the 1975 World Series. Among the league's top 10 hitters, Jose was one of three with 182 hits. The others were Bill Madlock, his distinguished teammate, and the Giants' Willie Montanez. Defensively Cardenal proved his versatility by playing all three outfield positions, handling 335 total chances, and was involved in three double plays. Jose's blue chip season included such foremost team marks as second in runs scored (85), third in runs batted in (68), tops in stolen bases (34), and the club leadership in doubles (30). Career-wise Cardenal owns such outstanding totals as 1,607 hits, 788 runs scored, and 655 RBI's. Jose came into baseball with the Giants' organization in 1961. One of his 121 home runs was off the Yankees' Whitey Ford in his first time at bat in American League competition for the California Angels in 1965.

KENNETH STEWART CROSBY

PITCHER. Throws Right. Bats Right. Born Dec. 16, 1947. Height 6:02. Weight 179. Married. Residence: Orem, Utah. Acquired: from Tulsa (St. Louis affiliate) for Eddie Solomon, July 22, 1975.

Wayne Granger. He was a 1965 graduate of Provo (Utah) High School.

Ken pitched in the minors for seven years, first as a Yankee and later as a Cardinal, without being promoted to the majors. Obtained by the Cubs in late July, Crosby appeared in one game for Midland, and three for Wichita when he was added to the Cubs' roster after Sept. 1. He appeared in 3 games winning one decision against the Mets. Crosby was a student-athlete at Brigham Young University when he signed with Roy Hamey, a Yankee scout. Crosby, a native of Canada, moved to the Cardinal organization Sept. 12, 1973 in a trade for pitcher

THOMAS ANTHONY (TOM) DETORRE JR. 31

Tom's specialty is long relief pitching stints, and he performed in this role 31 times during the 1975 season. Pitching a total of 85 innings, Detorre won 5 games, and lost 4. Overall this highly regarded prospect has a career log of 8 victories and 10 losses to represent his first 64 National League appearances. Drafted by the Pirates in the free agent winter draft of 1968, Detorre was signed originally as a catcher. A year later he switched to pitching, and quickly fashioned four winning records during five seasons in the minors. High spot of this string was a 9-5 record with a 2.16 ERA covering 129 innings in 18 games for Charleston (West Virginia) in the Class Triple-A International League in 1973. A left handed batter, Detorre had six singles in 1975 for a .250 percentage. Tom attended Canon McMillan High School in Canonsburg, Pa.

DID YOU KNOW . . .

Ernie Banks, one of the greatest hitters in baseball, set major league defensive records as well: highest fielding percentage by a shortstop in one season (.985) and fewest errors by a shortstop in one season (12) in 1959.

KENNETH DOUGLAS (KEN) FRAILING 47

Ken needs just four more appearances to make it an even 100 games with the Cubs as he starts his third season. Used mainly as a reliever in the Cubs' search for bullpen help, Frailing filled a fireman role 39 times in 1974, and 41 times in 1975. He's also made 16 starts, and turned one of them into his first complete game victory: a 12 to 4 taming of the San Francisco Giants May 27, 1974. Altogether he's won nine games in the majors starting with his first one for the White Sox vs. Minnesota Twins Sept. 5, 1972. Playing for six different teams in the minors, Ken's 11-4 log and 2.86 ERA were his top marks pitching for the Des Moines-based Iowa Oaks in the American Association in 1973.

MICHAEL DOUGLAS (MIKE) GARMAN 44

PITCHER. Throws Right. Bats Right. Born Sept. 15, 1949. Height 6:02. Weight 200. Married. Residence: Caldwell, Idaho. Acquired: from St. Louis Cardinals with player to be named later for Don Kessinger, Oct. 28, 1975.

Mike is a high velocity right hander the Cubs are counting upon to provide important bullpen help in 1976. During two full seasons with the Cardinals, he won 10, lost 10, and had 16 saves. Also two fine ERA readings: 2.63 in 1974, and 2.39 in 1975. In 1974, Garman was 6-0 against Eastern division foes, beating the Phillies twice in a 4-game series and closed out season with 5 consecutive victories. He was No. 1 choice of Red Sox in free agent draft in June of 1967, and beat Yankees in Sept. of 1969 making debut as starter. The Cardinals obtained Garman in 6 player deal—5 of them pitchers—with Red Sox Dec. 7, 1973. Oddly enough the only non-pitcher in the swap was infielder Terry Hughes, once a No. 1 draft selection of the Cubs. His most impressive minor league achievement was 183 strikeouts pitching 162 innings for Winston-Salem in 1969 during third professional season. Mike and his brother, Steve, followed their father into baseball. The elder Garman was in the Pirates' organization, and Steve signed with Giants. He established versatility winning All-State honors in baseball, basketball, and football at Caldwell (Idaho) High School. He also attended College of Idaho and is avid outdoorsman enjoying his foremost hobbies: hunting and fishing.

TIMOTHY KENNETH (TIM) HOSLEY 6

CATCHER. Bats Right. Throws Right. Born May 10, 1947. Height 5:10. Weight 195. Married, 2 daughters. Residence: Spartanburg, S.C. Acquired: Selected in pro draft from Tucson (Oakland) Dec. 2, 1974.

The Cubs' three catchers hit a total of 12 home runs in 1975, and Tim Hosley powered six of them as he batted .255 playing in 62 games. Since making his major league bow with the Detroit Tigers in 1970, Hosley has spent parts of four seasons in the majors: two with the Tigers, and two more with the Oakland A's. His 62 games with the Cubs, spanning the entire season, almost doubled his previous total of 38—all in American League. Hosley hit 20 or more home runs during minor league seasons, reaching a high of 27 and a low of 20. During the 1973 and 1974 seasons, the A's farm hand hit 29 for Tucson in the Pacific Coast League (Class AAA). During the off-season Hosley is associated with the city recreation department in his home city of Spartanburg, S.C.

MICHAEL DENNIS (MICK) KELLEHER 20

INFIELDER. Bats Right. Throws Right. Born July 25, 1947. Height 5:09. Weight 175. Residence: Santa Barbara, Calif. Married. Acquired: from St. Louis Cardinals in trade for infielder-outfielder Vic Harris, Dec. 17, 1975.

Mick is an outstanding gloveman as verified by the fact he has led the American Association (Class AAA) shortstops in fielding in 1975 and 1972, and paced his peers in that slot in the California League (Class A) in 1971. He has been in the Cardinal chain since signing his first pro contract in 1969 except for the 1974 season. He was sold to Houston and played for the Astros and the Denver Bears during that season. Following the 1974 campaign, the Cards repurchased his contract. In addition to seven games in 1975, Kelleher saw action in the majors with the Cards in 1972 and 1973. He was graduated at Shoreline High in Seattle, Wash., in 1965. He attended Wenatchee (Wash.) Valley College and the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma, Wash.

DAROLD DUANE KNOWLES 32

Darold Knowles pitched in 58 games for the Cubs in 1975, and was involved in 21 victories with 15 saves and 6 wins during his 11th season in the majors. Knowles has pitched in 555 games, and made 8 starts. His last was against the Texas Rangers Aug. 7, 1974. The left-handed bullpen expert has pitched for five clubs, and been involved in four trades totalling 14 players. After a short stint with the Baltimore Orioles in 1965, Knowles spent his first full major league year with the Philadelphia Phillies the following season. Traded back to the American League after the 1966 season, Darold has recorded 87 saves since this statistic was added to the official pitching records in 1969. His personal season high in saves is 27 with the Washington Senators in 1970. Knowles became Mr. Zero for Oakland in the 1973 World Series, pitching 6.1 inning in all seven games against the New York Mets without yielding an earned run. During the past seven seasons, the Missouri native has contributed to 125 victories with 87 saves and 38 wins in 388 games.

Jim spent entire 1975 season with Wichita, the Cubs' top farm club, winning 7 and losing 5. During the past two seasons, he has won 15 games for the Aeros. Kremmel's achievements at the University of New Mexico are legend: a career total of 21 victories, the university's and the Western Athletic Conference's first no-hit, no-run game against University of Arizona April 17, 1970, and 18 strikeouts vs. Eastern New Mexico April 30, 1970. Jim signed first pro contract with Texas Rangers in 1971 making his major league debut against the White Sox in 1973. So impressed with Kremmel's performance, White Sox Manager Chuck Tanner recommended his purchase. Rangers traded him to Cardinals, who assigned Jim to Tulsa, Okla. White Sox finally secured his contract in fall of same year, but he never wore a Sox uniform. Kremmel's 142 innings pitched for Aeros in 1975, for his entire pro career. Previous high was 99 innings for Wichita in 1974. Jim has a B.A. degree in finance and economics from University of New Mexico.

MICHAEL EDWARD (MIKE) KRUKOW 40

PITCHER. Throws Right, Bats Right. Born Jan. 21, 1952. Height 6:04. Weight 205. Married. Residence: San Gabriel, Calif. Acquired: signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Mike qualifies for one of the most unusual oddities in baseball: walking 17 batters in the process of pitching a no-hit game. This experience was reduced to a mere memory in 1975 when Krukow won 13 of 19 decisions to help Midland become the co-champion of the Texas League. A native of Long Beach, Calif., Krukow attended high school in San Gabriel, where he played baseball, basketball, and football to earn All-Pacific League selection in both baseball and basketball in 1970. His even 100 strikeouts in 153 innings for Midland was the second best total among the young minor league pitchers on the Cubs' roster. As a student-athlete at California State Poly in San Luis Obispo, Krukow was 9-3 with a 2.44 ERA in 1972, and 10-3 with an ERA reading of 1.35 in 1973 plus setting a school record of 126 strikeouts in 113 innings. Mike's collegiate career record is 25-7, 1.93 ERA, 274 strikeouts in 274 innings, and 21 complete games in 35 starts.

RALPH PIERRE (PETE) LaCOCK JR. 23

INFIELDER-OUTFIELDER. Bats Left. Throws Left. Born Jan. 17, 1952. Height 6:03. Weight 210. Married. Residence: Woodland Hills, Calif. Acquired: signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Pete's first of four sacrifice flies in 1975 was a game-winner. It anchored the Cubs' first victory, 2-1, over Montreal April 11. Pete was considering numerous intercollegiate scholarship offers for football—one from Ohio State—when the Cubs made him their No. 1 pick in free agent draft of January 1970. Signed to his first pro contract by Gene Handley, LaCock played his way up the ladder in the farm system before he was called to the Cubs the first time in 1972. During first three stints in the majors, Pete played 5, 11, and 35 games in that order. He narrowly missed triple crown in American Association playing for Wichita in 1974. He led with 91 RBI's, second with 23 home runs, and fourth in batting with .327. Pete singled in his first time at bat in majors as pinch batter vs. Pirates Sept. 6, 1972. He hit his first home run in majors off Dodgers' Andy Messersmith Aug. 29, 1974, to break up a budding no-hitter. His father, Peter Marshall, is famous Hollywood TV personality, and he's a nephew of actress Joanne Dru.

DENNIS PATRICK LAMP

PITCHER. Throws Right. Bats Right. Born Sept. 23, 1952. Height 6:03. Weight 190. Single. Residence: Los Alamitos, Calif. Acquired: signed by the Chicago Cubs.

During his third professional season Denny Lamp enjoyed an action-filled achievement which doesn't come to all athletes. Pitching for Quincy, Ill., in the Midwest League in 1973, Lamp was selected for the league's annual All-Star game. With a 6-4 record to highspot this selection, Denny was promoted to Midland to finish out the season. Last year Denny parlayed a 7-5 record and a 3.34 ERA at Midland into promotion to the Cubs' roster—one of 19 pitchers on this list. Denny was signed following graduation from St. John Bosco High School in Bellflower, Calif. He was a two-time selection for the All Santa Fe League Team during his junior and senior years and was voted the league's MVP after each season. As a senior he won 13 of 15 decisions, fanned 127 batters, and yielded just 48 hits in 94 innings. Lamp's favorite hobby is coaching basketball, all this after moving up the baseball ladder from Little League to American Legion competition before turning pro.

BILL MADLOCK JR.

INFIELDER. Bats Right. Throws Right. Born Jan. 12, 1951. Married. 1 son and 1 daughter. Residence: Barrington, Ill. Acquired: with Vic Harris from Texas Rangers for Ferguson Jenkins, Oct. 27, 1973.

Bill, playing only his second season for the Cubs, matched the explosive exploits of such all-time greats in the club's history as Heinie Zimmerman, Phil Cavarretta, and Billy Williams. All of them won National League batting championships. Madlock reached this very same prestigious plateau with .354. This figure topped Williams' .333 in 1972 by 21 percentage points, and trailed Cavarretta's pace-setting .355 in 1945 by a single point. Placing team contributions ahead of personal gain, Madlock played the last two weeks of the 1975 season with a painful hand injury. Bill's lofty figure made him only the second infielder to win the batting crown since 1960. The other was Joe Torre for the Cardinals in 1971. The Cubs' 9-7 victory over the Giants June 3 highspotted a typical Madlock day at the plate. His homer tied the score in the ninth, and his double in the tenth clinched it. Bill was the league's first 6-for-6 hitter July 26. Using what Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner described as "one of the best short strokes I've ever seen," Bill's 182 hits included 29 doubles, 7 triples and 7 home runs as early and late season injuries limited his competition to 130 games. He has three straight .300 plus batting averages, starting with .351 for the Rangers in 1973, and a .313 percentage for the Cubs in 1974. This latter mark earned selection as co-Chicago Rookie of The Year, and election as the third baseman on the Major Leagues' All-Rookie Team. Madlock's single keyed the National League victory in the 1975 All-Star game played in Milwaukee. The Madlock story includes a definite touch of Cinderella. He was No. 268 in the free agent draft of 1968; called by Cardinals, but didn't sign. In 1969, he was No. 99 in secondary phase, and signed with Washington Senators. He tied Pacific Coast League record in 1973 with a single game 6-for-6, and led league with .434 as designated hitter. Bill was graduated at Eisenhower High School in Decatur, Ill., and lettered in baseball at Keokuk (Iowa) Jr. College.

CATCHER. Bats Right. Throws Right. Born June 7, 1945. Height 6:02. Weight 205. Married, 3 sons. Residence: Orlando, Fla. Acquired: from Minnesota Twins for Randy Hundley, Dec. 6, 1973.

Three home runs, one of them his first grand slam, and 8 RBI's were the foremost ingredients in George's dream game April 17, 1974. He reached this milestone playing only his fifth game for the Cubs. Previously Ron Santo was the last Cub with 8 RBI's vs. Montreal July 6, 1970, and Rick Monday's three homers in Philadelphia May 6, 1972, enabled George to gain a second tie during his explosive day. Mitterwald was the American League's No. 1 defensive catcher in 1973. He compiled a .992 fielding average, catching 122 games for the Twins. He had two other career highs: 16 homers and 64 RBI's. Before turning pro in 1965, George was an all-around athlete at Chabot Jr. College in Haywood, Calif. He debuted as a first baseman April 12, 1975 for the Cubs filling an emergency role.

ROBERT JAMES (RICK) MONDAY JR. 7

OUTFIELDER. Bats Left. Throws Left. Born Nov. 20, 1945. Height 6:03. Weight 200. Married, 1 son and 1 daughter. Residence: Clarendon Hills, Ill., Acquired: from Oakland A's for Ken Holtzman, Nov. 29, 1971.

Rick enjoyed the distinction of an unmatched first when he was selected the first player in baseball's first free agent draft in June of 1965. Then he was 20. Now he's 30, and turning into his tenth full season as one of the game's most outstanding center fielders. During his fourth season with the Cubs, Monday had 131 hits in 1975, and 50 of them went for extra bases: 29 doubles, 4 triples, and 17 home runs. Three of the doubles came in the 1975 season opener against the Pirates. His .446 slugging percentage was tops for the Cubs' regular outfield of Monday, Jose Cardenal, and Jerry Morales. During 1975 Rick moved past the 1,000 hit milestone, and continued to 1,087. His No. 28 RBI of 1976 will produce another milestone: 500 runs driven in. Monday's career batting average was .266 going into 1975, and he topped this figure by a single percentage point. His club high total of 98 runs scored increased his career count to 628 for 1,204 games in 9-plus seasons. In leading Arizona State to the College World Series championship in his senior year, Rick batted .365 for the Sun Devils and was named College Player of the Year.

PITCHER. Throws Right. Bats Left. Born Feb. 13, 1954. Height 6:00. Weight 170. Married. Residence: Lubbock, Tex. Acquired: signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Few athletes can match Donnie's early training in his desire to become a major league pitcher. He played Little League, Pony League, Colt League, and finally American Legion baseball in his native Lubbock. While attending Monterey High School in Lubbock, Moore twice was named to the All-Texas class AAAA team and once to the All-American team. Had 18-4 record pitching Monterey to state championship and was selected as Texas' most outstanding baseball player. He attended Ranger Jr. College for one year, winning 18 and losing

1 in 1973 to earn All-American honors in junior college competition. Donnie was named MVP and outstanding pitcher when Ranger won national junior college tournament as Moore won 4 games for his team and saved 1 with 1.29 ERA. He also played semi-pro baseball with Lubbock Hubbers in becoming Cubs' No. 1 choice in secondary phase of free agent draft in January of 1973. He had 14-8 record and 2.97 ERA pitching 185 innings in 28 games for Midland in Texas League in 1975. He pitched for Cubs during past two seasons of the Arizona Instructional League, and worked as an official scorer when he wasn't pitching.

JULIO RUBEN (JERRY) MORALES

OUTFIELDER. Bats Right. Throws Right. Born Feb. 18, 1949. Height 5:10. Weight 175. Married, 1 daughter. Residence: Caguas, P.R. Acquired: from San Diego Padres for Glenn Beckert, Nov. 12, 1973.

Jerry's bow with the Cubs in 1974 proved a very pleasant surprise. He led the club with 82 RBI's and added considerable expertise to the Cubs' outfield defense. Morales had an even better year in 1975, leading the club a second straight season with 91 RBI's and continuing his sparkling defensive finesse. In two seasons with the Cubs, Jerry has a total of 173 RBI's for 304 games compared to 52 playing 237 games for San Diego in his last two years with the Padres. The excellence of Morales' amazing bat control is best proved by this statistic:

257 strikeouts in 2,171 plate appearances in 600 major league games. Although right field is his regular position, he also moved to center and left in late inning defensive maneuvers and had the Cubs' best 1975 outfield fielding percentage: .979 in the process of handling 290 total chances. Jerry is a graduate of Little League baseball in his native Puerto Rico, and he also played in the Caribbean Inter-American Games in 1966. Morales originally signed with the Mets, and played with four of that organization's farm system teams. He was selected in the National League expansion draft by San Diego in October of 1968. Due to a series of injuries in 1972, the Padres moved the fulltime outfielder to third base in an emergency move.

WILFRED ANTHONY (WILLIE) PRALL 37

The Cubs' first reading on Willie Prall came when the tall lefty was pitching for the opposition. The year was 1973 when Prall, pitching for Amarillo in the Texas League, blanked Midland on one hit and fanned 14. Then as now, Midland was a Cubs' farm team. The following March the Cubs traded Ken Rudolph to the Giants for Prall, who was immediately assigned to Wichita in the 3-A American Association. In 1974 he had a 4-12 record with the Aeros, but improved to the point of winning 11 and losing 7 in 1975, and lowered his ERA to 3.73 compared to 5.11 the previous year. Willie was a third round selection of the Giants in the June draft of 1971. Pitching for Upsala College in East Orange, N.J., in 1971, Prall won 8 of 9 decisions with a 1.41 ERA and struck out 137 batters in 83 innings—the second-best record among collegiate pitchers that season.

CATCHER. Bats Right. Throws Right. Born Sept. 25, 1953. Height 6:01. Weight 190. Single. Residence: Covina, Calif. Acquired: signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Ed, the Cubs' No. 1 selection in the secondary phase of the free agent draft in January of 1975, is considered a "Johnny Bench type." At least this is the opinion of Rod Dedeaux, Putman's coach at the University of Southern California. About his three-season catcher, Dedeaux noted: "He is the Johnny Bench type. He has home run power, and he is smart. This makes him a very good handler of pitchers." Signed to a major league contract, Putman played 116 pro games in 1975, 24 at Midland, and 92 at Key West, Fla. Ed played with four national championship teams. After an outstanding career at Northview High School in Covina, Putman caught for the American Legion national champions in 1970. During his three varsity seasons at Southern Cal, Ed was the catcher for the Trojans' college world series champions in 1972, '73, and '74. Putman was originally drafted by the Texas Rangers in 1971, but elected to continue his education.

PITCHER. Throws Right. Bats Right, Born Jan. 12, 1947. Height 6:04. Weight 210. Married, 1 son. Residence: Camp Point, Ill. Acquired: signed by Chicago Cubs.

Chicago baseball fans turned the calendar back 53 years when the Brothers Reuschel—Paul and Rick—combined to pitch the Cubs to a shutout victory over Los Angeles on Aug. 21, 1975. This success recalled shades of 1922 when Homer and Ted Blankenship provided the White Sox and Chicago with other brother pitching combination. Rick started, and pitched a 6.1 inning shutout. When a blister forced his early retirement, Paul came aboard and zipped the Dodgers during the final 2.2 innings. It provided Rick with a win, and Paul a well-deserved save. Paul had a 6-4 record at Wichita when he was called up to the Cubs, and finished out the season pitching 36 innings in 28 games. Paul was graduated at Western Illinois University with a degree in physical education after lettering in both baseball and basketball. Paul is a farmer during the off season.

RICKY EUGENE (RICK) REUSCHEL

PITCHER. Throws Right. Bats Right, Born May 16, 1949. Height 6:03. Weight 230. Married. Residence: Arlington Heights, Ill. Acquired: signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Rick started 37 of his 38 games in 1975, and his lone fireman role produced a save to go along with his 11 victories. A troublesome finger blister limited his total effectiveness, but the big right hander still managed to pitch 234 innings. He was the starting pitcher in sharing three shutouts, one each with Oscar Zamora, his brother Paul, and Ken Crosby. The junior partner of the Brothers Reuschel used his fielding finesse to enter his name in the National League record book April 25. He was credited with all 3 outs in the third inning of the Cubs' 4-3 win over St. Louis. He tagged out the first batter,

R. Reuschel Cont'd

Ted Simmons, in the base line. When Keith Hernandez and Ken Reitz took turns grounding to First Baseman Pete LaCock, Rick covered first for the second and third outs. Rick pitched a three hitter, his first complete game of the year, on May 15 to high-spot a 4-2 win over San Diego. Both of the Padres' runs were unearned. Another 3-hitter, May 31 vs. the Dodgers, produced a 2-1 victory for Reuschel against Andy Messersmith in Los Angeles as Rick struck out 11. His first decision in 1976 will be No. 101 of his 3½ season career after 48 victories in the first 100. Reuschel and the Braves' Phil Niekro each handled 62 chances flawlessly to share 1975 fielding honors among National League pitchers.

DAVID RODRIGUEZ (DAVE) ROSELLO 17

INFIELDER. Bats Right. Throws Right. Born June 26, 1950. Height 5:11. Weight 160. Married. Residence: Mayaguez, P.R. Acquired: signed by the Chicago Cubs.

One of the Cubs' foremost September discoveries in 1975 was the improved hitting and continued solid defensive play of Dave Rosello. After a 135-game season at Wichita and a .257 batting average vs. American Association pitching, Dave was recalled Sept. 1. During a 19-game test run with the Cubs, Rosello compiled a .259 batting average along with hitting his first major league home run in the collection of 8 RBIs with 15 hits. A native Puerto Rican, Dave stamped himself a schoolboy Whiz Kid as he participated in four sports: baseball, basketball, softball and track, attending Eugenio Maria de Hostos High School in Mayaguez. He also played American Legion baseball. Dave spent his first four pro seasons advancing in the Cubs' farm system, and played five games with the Wrigley Fielders in the closing stages of 1972. Dave was the kingpin of American Association shortstops in 1972 with 436 assists, 686 total chances, and tied for lead with 215 putouts and 88 double plays. He played winter baseball for the Ponce Lions in Puerto Rican League.

PITCHER. Throws Left. Bats Right. Born Sept. 19, 1950. Height 6:00. Weight 170. Married, 1 son and 1 daughter. Residence: Southgate, Mich. Acquired: signed by Chicago Cubs.

Buddy revived a lost art in pitching when he pitched a double-header shutout in the semi-final and final games to give Shaw High School of East Cleveland the 1968 Ohio state championship. He gave up a total of five hits and struck out 27 (13-14) to anchor the twin zips. A graduate of Miami University with a degree in Education, Schultz set two school marks: lowest ERA (1.06) in 1970, and most strikeouts (112 in 77 innings) in one season in 1971. He set NCAA record with 26 strikeouts in one game vs. Wright State College. After a 2-8 mark at Wichita in 1975, Buddy was promoted to the Cubs. He won 2 games without loss, and fanned 4 pitching 6 innings in 6 appearances. In his desire to become a fulltime fireman, Buddy has started only five games since early 1974 at Midland in the Texas League.

INFILDER. Bats Right. Throws Right. Born Oct. 10, 1949. Height 6:01. Weight 185. Married. Residence: Midland, Texas. Acquired: signed by the Chicago Cubs.

Rob was the busiest of the Cubs' handymen in 1975, playing four different positions and doing a solid workmanlike job in each situation. Altogether he played 22 games at third base; 17 at second; 16 at shortstop, and 8 in the outfield. Rob was charged with 12 errors, a remarkable low total considering his constant shifting. Sperring made his major league debut Aug. 11, 1974, going 2-for-3 with a home run and double. He starred in both baseball and basketball at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, Calif., while earning a B.A. degree in physical education. After playing both Little League and American Legion baseball, Sperring's semi-pro competition came as a member of the Lodi (Calif.) Guild Winemasters. Playing for Midland in the Texas League in 1973, Rob had 14 home runs for the season after hitting three in one game—his foremost pro thrill thus far.

DID YOU KNOW . . .

Ernie Banks, one of the greatest hitters in baseball, set major league defensive records as well: highest fielding percentage by a shortstop in one season (.985) and fewest errors by a shortstop in one season (12) in 1959.

STEVEN MICHAEL (STEVE) STONE

PITCHER. Throws Right. Bats Right. Born July 14, 1947. Height 5:10. Weight 175. Single. Residence: Chicago, Ill. Acquired: with Ken Frailing, Jim Kremmel, and Steve Swisher from Chicago White Sox for Ron Santo, Dec. 11, 1973.

Ten games into the 1971 Pacific Coast League season, Steve Stone came up to the major leagues—and he's been here ever since. During this time he's been traded twice: once from the Giants to the White Sox, and to the Cubs a year later. In three seasons, two with the Giants and one with the White Sox, Stone was 17-28. In two years with the Cubs, Steve has achieved a 20-14 turnabout in becoming a regular starter. In 1975 he soared to a career high 12 wins among 20 decisions. One of his eight losses was a new high in heartbreak: a combined one hitter with Tom Detmore in a 2-1 loss to the Padres in San Diego July 19. Steve accounted for two of the Cubs' seven straight victories at the outset of the season as his ERA dropped from 4.13 in 1974 to 3.95 in 1975 and his starts increased from 23 to 32. Stone pitched 214 innings, topping the 200 mark in this department for the first time of his improving career. Stone was graduated at Kent (Ohio) State University in 1969 with a degree in history and government. As pitcher-captain of the Golden Flashes in the Mid-American Conference, Steve's batterymate was the Yankees' Thurman Munson. Stone shot a hole-in-one as an 11-year-old golfer, won tennis tournaments when he was 15 and 16, and competed in both bowling and volleyball at the intercollegiate level. Steve is associated with a restaurant chain in Chicago during the off season.

DID YOU KNOW . . .

The Chicago Cubs' pitching staff of 1907 won 107 games with a team earned run average of 1.73, and pitched a total of 32 shut-outs! Needless to say, they won the National League pennant that season.

JOHN (CHAMP) SUMMERS

INFILDER-OUTFIELDER. Bats Left. Throws Right. Born June 15, 1948. Height 6:01. Weight 205. Married. Residence: Granite City, Ill. Acquired: from Tucson, Arizona (Oakland A's affiliate) to complete deal of April 6 that sent Jim Todd to A's, April 29, 1975.

The Champ's first major league home run triggered a spectacular spree of grand slams—one of the most demolishing shootouts ever for pinch batters. Summer's slam came off of a pitch by Houston's Jim York in Wrigley Field Aug. 23. Thereafter the Cubs had two more slams: one by Pete LaCock off the Cardinals' Bob Gibson, and the other by Tim Hosley off the Phillies' Randy Lerch. In this manner the Cubs produced three of the National League's seven slams by pinch batters. Summers had played 20 games in the majors when he came to the Cubs, and complied a .231 average playing in 76 games. He was a three-sport star at Madison (Ill.) High School, competing in basketball, football, and track. John signed with the A's in 1971 after playing just 35 college games. A native of Bremerton, Washington, Summers served a two-year stint with the U.S. Army Paratroopers in Viet Nam. Before his rookie season grand slam homer, the Champ's foremost thrill came from hitting three consecutive homers for Burlington, Iowa, vs. Appleton, Wis. in the Midwest League in 1972.

HOWARD BRUCE SUTTER

PITCHER. Throws Right. Bats Right. Born Jan. 8, 1953. Height 6:02. Weight 190. Single. Residence: Mount Joy, Pa. Acquired: signed by the Chicago Cubs.

One of the older chants in baseball is the frequently heard fan's command to a batter: Wait for Walk! When Bruce is pitching this is almost a negative plea. Awaiting his fifth pro season, the 23-year-old Sutter owns a statistic some major league pitchers can't match. He yielded only 67 base on balls pitching 222 innings in the minors. Following a pitching pattern which establishes him as Mr. Stingy, Sutter has struck out 193 batters while surrendering 206 hits to anchor such impressive ERA figures as 1.35, 1.44, and 2.16. In 1974, Bruce had to sit out two months due to surgery to correct a knee injury he suffered fielding a bunt. Although Bruce has pitched in 110 games, he's made only two starts in his desire to become an effective relief pitcher. Sutter was graduated at Mt. Joy's Donegal High School in 1970 after lettering in three sports: baseball, basketball, and football. Bruce works as a printer during the off season.

CATCHER. Bats Right. Throws Right. Born Aug. 9, 1951. Height 6:02. Weight 205. Single. Residence: Chicago, Ill., Acquired: with Steve Stone, Ken Frailing, and Jim Krimmel from Chicago White Sox for Ron Santa, Dec. 11, 1973.

Steve's second season with the Cubs was unusual inasmuch as he spent 10 days in Wichita trying to improve his hitting. When he was optioned to the Aeros, Lew Fonseca, the club's special hitting instructor, made the trip with him. Playing seven games during this time, "Swish" batted an impressive .286, getting 4 home runs among 6 hits with 9 RBI's. During his 93-game season with the Cubs, Swisher finished with .213, plus hitting his sixth major league homer. Holder of a B.A. degree in education from Ohio University in Athens, Swisher was the No. 1 choice of the White Sox in the free agent draft of 1973. During three seasons of varsity competition with the Bobcats, Steve averaged .346 to become a three time all-conference selection in the Mid-American loop. Swisher compiled a three season .462 average playing three seasons of high school baseball at Parkersburg (W. Va.) South.

ANDRE (ANDY) THORNTON

INFILDER. Bats Right. Throws Right. Born Aug. 13, 1949. Height 6:02. Weight 205. Married, 1 son. Residence: West Chester, Pa. Acquired: with cash from Atlanta Braves for Joe Pepitone, May 19, 1973.

The start of Andy's 1975 season was delayed until May 3 due to a fractured right wrist sustained in a spring exhibition game against the Cleveland Indians March 31. A leg injury suffered during the closing weeks of the season cut his playing time to 120 games. Nevertheless the smooth fielding first baseman managed to fracture National League pitching with his productive bat. Andy's .293 was his best percentage in the majors, and he led the Cubs with 18 home runs while collecting 60 RBI's. He was originally signed with the Phillies' organization in 1967. Traded to the Braves organization in 1972, Andy combined to hit 20 homers and post 65 RBI's playing in 95 games between two 3-A clubs: Eugene, Oregon, in the Pacific Coast League and Richmond, Virginia, in the International League. After outstanding achievements playing baseball, basketball, and football for Phoenixville, (Pa.) High School, Thornton played in the Babe Ruth World Series in Anderson, Indiana in 1965. The first of Thornton's 119 home runs as a pro player, came in his third game and was his team's only run in a 20-1 loss. "Thunder" is his teammates' favorite nickname for Andy.

JESUS MANUEL (MANNY) TRILLO

INFIELDER. Bats Right. Throws Right. Born Dec. 25, 1950. Height 6:01. Weight 160. Married. Residence: Caracas, Venez. Acquired: with Darold Knowles and Bob Locker from Oakland A's for Billy Williams, Oct. 23, 1974.

The most productive .248 batting average in baseball. That is how some writers rated Manny Trillo's debut with the Cubs in 1975 — and with good reason. Considered mainly a singles hitter, Trillo packaged 12 doubles, 2 triples, and 7 home runs with 114 singles in the collection of 70 RBI's. In this manner Manny moved into select company among such outstanding second basemen in Cubs' history as Billy Herman, Don Johnson, Ken Hubbs, and finally Glenn Beckert. Trillo had played fewer than 40 games in the majors when he came to the Cubs in a four player deal in which the Cubs gave up Billy Williams. The skilled newcomer, who celebrated his 25th birthday last Christmas Day, played 154 games in his first full season with the Cubs. After attending Libertador Bolivar College in Venezuela, he signed his first pro contract with the Phillies in 1968 as a catcher. Oakland acquired Manny in the pro draft of December of 1969, after he had shifted to infielding. Following tours of duty with three of the A's farm clubs, Trillo joined Oakland in 1973, and bowed in with a first time at bat game-winning single. Chicago baseball writers honored Trillo as the Cubs' rookie of the year at their 1976 Diamond Dinner.

DID YOU KNOW . . .

May 30, 1922, Max Flack played right field for the Chicago Cubs in the first game of a doubleheader, and Cliff Heathcote played right for the St. Louis Cardinals. Between games, the two teams made a trade and Flack played right field for the Cards in the second game, and Heathcote played right for the Cubs!

JAMES VERNON (JIM) TYRONE

OUTFIELDER. Bats Right. Throws Right. Born Jan. 29, 1949. Height 6:01. Weight 185. Single. Residence: Alice, Tex. Acquired: Signed by the Chicago Cubs.

When the Cubs promoted Jim to Wichita in 1973, he didn't need a road map to find his way. Jim's first trip to this baseball-minded city in Kansas was completed three years earlier. Then, he was a member of the Lawton (Oklahoma) Pepsis. Lawton won the Oklahoma state semi-pro championship, and qualified for a berth in the National Baseball Congress Tournament. The following year Tyrone signed his first pro contract with the Cubs, and immediately stamped himself an outstanding prospect. Jim batted .303 for Quincy (Illinois) in the Midwest League, and stole 25 bases—the league's third highest total. Few athletes have been exposed to a wider range of competition, all the way from his native Alice in Texas to winter baseball with the Escogido Lions in the Dominican League. Jim's third shot with the Cubs, an 11-game test in 1975, was his best yet in his bid for an outfield berth.

HAROLD JOSEPH (JOE) WALLIS

OUTFIELDER. Bats Left. Throws Right. Born Jan. 9, 1952. Height 5:10. Weight 195. Single. Residence: Florissant, Mo. Acquired: signed by the Chicago Cubs.

The Cubs provided three of the 15 National League outfielders who played through 1975 with 1,000 fielding percentages. Joe Wallis was the leader of this flawless threesome with 32 total chances in 16 games. Behind Joe came Pete LaCock (28), and Gene Hiser (25). In compiling a .286 batting average (16 for 56), Joe's bat speed was most impressive. He slugged 2 doubles, 2 triples, and his first major league home run in his brief, but impressive debut following earlier stints in Midland, Texas (.284), and Wichita, Kansas (.333). Joe attended Southern Illinois University for three years, majoring in business and baseball. In 1972 he batted .446 in 41 games, getting 9 triples, 4 home runs, and 42 RBI's. His percentage was the second best in S.I.U. history. Wallis' 1973 average was .364 in 43 games as he blended power with speed: 49 hits and 34 stolen bases. Since becoming a Cub, Joe has logged three thrills: going 3-for-4 (including a home run) against Denny McLain; being coached by Al Spangler and Walt Dixon during his first pro season, and becoming acquainted with Ernie Banks, calling him: "The greatest guy I ever met."

GEOFFREY CLAYTON (GEOFF) ZAHN 38

Geoff, starting his first full season with the Cubs, is hoping for the return to form which helped him win 30 games pitching two seasons in the Dodgers' farm system. During this time Zahn put together most impressive 7-2, 10-1, and 13-8 records to earn promotion to the Dodgers in 1973. While winning 4 and losing 5 for the Dodgers, Geoff posted a stingy 1.94 ERA pitching 93 innings in 27 games. During this time he was a spot starter when not working in relief—a role he was happy to accept. An injury serious enough to put him on the disabled list after he joined the Cubs in early May, limited his 1975 competition to 66 innings in 18 games. Zahn, a native of Baltimore, Md., signed with the Dodgers following graduation at the University of Michigan. Geoff majored in biology and physical education at Michigan.

OSCAR JOSEPH ZAMORA 45

PITCHER. Throws Right. Bats Right. Born Sept. 23, 1944. Height 5:10. Weight 178. Single. Residence: Miami, Fla. Acquired: contract purchased from Denver (Houston affiliate), June 15, 1974.

Oscar labored in the minor leagues for almost 10 years before getting to the majors as a 30-year old rookie. The long wait paid a quick dividend as he proved himself one of the Cubs' top pitchers in 1974, and encored his early success in 1975. Now they call him Mr. Twin Ten, the result of 10 saves in 1974 and a repeat of this number in '75. He also won five games and lost two pitching 71 innings in 52 appearances. The highspot of Mr. Z's first full season as a Cub came June 3 when he was selected the National League "player of the week." He earned this honor pitching 7.1 runless innings in three games to earn a victory and a save. The low spot followed two months later (August 3) when Oscar was placed on the 21-day disabled list due to a back injury. Zamora signed with Cleveland in 1965, and was released following the 1968 season. Then he joined the Houston organization, and had a 7-5 record at Denver as a starting pitcher in 1974 when he was purchased by the Cubs and used entirely as a relief pitcher. Oscar and his family fled their native Cuba in 1960, and this gave him the opportunity to attend Edison High School in Miami before enrolling in Miami Dade Jr. College.

HOW TO CALCULATE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of times a player has been at bat into the number of hits he has recorded.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs a pitcher has allowed by 9. Divide the result by the number of innings he has pitched.

WON-LOSS PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total of number of games won and lost.

GAMES AHEAD/BEHIND: Subtract the team's wins from the first place team's wins, and subtract the first place team's losses from the team's losses. Add the 2 results and divide by 2.

MAGIC NUMBER: Subtract the number of losses by the first place team from the losses of the second place team. Subtract that result from the number of games remaining to be played by the first place team, and add one to that result.

DID YOU KNOW . . .

Adrian "Cap" Anson, a member of the first Cub team in the newly formed National League in 1876, was an active player for the Chicago club 22 consecutive years (1876-97), and hit over .300 for 20 of those 22 years—a record that has never been topped!

SENIOR CITIZENS' DAYS are a popular feature at Wrigley Field each season.. Anyone 65 years of age or older is admitted to the unreserved grandstand for only $1.00, half the regular admission, any Tuesday the Cubs play at home. See inside back cover for the complete schedule.

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE

Major league and National Association clubs participate in 2 meetings a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent. Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with the player for a specified period (from the date of selection until 15 days prior to the next draft meeting). Draft meetings are held in June and January.

There are 2 categories to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase—Selection of free agents is in inverse order of major league standings. Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, "AAA" and "AA" rosters but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level. Minor league clubs select in the same order as their parent clubs.

(2) Secondary Phase—Selection is of free agents who had been drafted at a previous meeting, but who were not subsequently signed during the negotiation period. It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with written consent of that player. Order of selection in the secondary phase is determined by lot.

HIGHLIGHTS OF CUBS HISTORY

The Chicago Cubs are rich in heritage. The team is most proud of the fact that it is the only one of the original eight charter members of the National League which has operated continuously in the same city in which it was franchised 100 years ago. The Cubs completed in their 100th consecutive season in 1975, every one of which were played in Chicago.

The Cubs have officially designated this year as their centennial season. This season will also mark the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the National League. Because of the close ties between Baseball and the American way of life it is most fitting that 1976 will mark the 200th anniversary of the birth of our nation.

One of the prime movers behind the establishment of the new National League in 1876 was William A. Hulbert, president of the Chicago Club. He was one of the early presidents of the League, and held the dual roles of league president and club president until his death in 1882.

The Chicago Club was known originally as the "White Stockings," although in those days nicknames were not official. About 1890 that name was dropped and the team was known by several nicknames, most notably the "Colts" and "Orphans." Legend has it that a newspaper writer, searching for a short nickname to fit a headline, first used the name "Cubs." It was officially adopted as the nickname of the club in 1900.

Early in the 20th century the club came under the absentee ownership of the Taft family of Cincinnati, but following the 1915 season a group of influential Chicagoans, among them William Wrigley, Jr., purchased the club. Five years later, in 1921, Wrigley became majority stockholder. After the death of William Wrigley Jr. in 1932, his son, Philip K. Wrigley, became majority stockholder.

NOTES ON CUBS HISTORY

In 100 National League seasons, the Cubs have played 14,539 games, not counting ties, and won 7,570 of them, both lifetime major league records.

The Cubs have won 16 National League pennants, second only to the Giants with 18.

The Cubs, as a team, have hit 100 or more home runs in 25 of their last 26 seasons.

The all-time major league record for wins in a season and winning percentage in a season is held by the 1906 Cubs, who won 116 and lost 36, for a .763 percentage.

The 1935 Cubs set the club record for consecutive wins in a season with 21 in a row.

The largest crowd ever to see a baseball game at Wrigley Field, was 51,556 on June 27, 1930, against Brooklyn. Of that number, however, 30,476 were Ladies Day guests and 1,332 passholders so the official paid crowd that day was only 19,748.

GENERAL RULES INFORMATION

Player Limits: Clubs must cut active roster to a maximum of 25 players on opening day; . . . From Sept. 1 to opening day, clubs may carry up to 40 players.

Trades within the National League: From midnight the last day of the season to midnight June 15, player contracts may be traded or sold without getting waivers. . . . From June 15 to the end of the season, League waivers are necessary.

Waivers: Player contracts may be available for purchase by other clubs in reverse order of the League standings at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after opening day. Otherwise, in reverse order of the standing at the close of the previous season.

Inter-League Trades: From midnight on the 5th day after the completion of the World Series to midnight of the day preceding the last day of the Winter Meetings, player contracts may be traded or sold between clubs of the National and American League without waivers. . . . From midnight, Dec. 10, to midnight, June 15, and from the last day of the season through the 4th day after the completion of the World Series, waivers are necessary in the assignor's league. . . . From midnight, June 15, to the last day of the season, waivers from all major league clubs are necessary.

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of 9 innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the 9th or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after 5 completed innings. A regulation game may be less than 5 innings if the home team is ahead after the first of the 5th, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the 5th.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the League standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: (1) a curfew imposed by law; (2) a time limit permissible under league rules; (3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment; or (4) Darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under either provision (3) or (4) shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Note: weather and similar conditions shall take precedence in determining wheather a called game shall be a suspended game. A game can only be considered a suspended game if stopped for any of the 4 reasons specified. Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a "tie game" and must be replayed in its entirety.

NEW "SAVE" RULE

Effective in 1975 the new "save" rule reads: "A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
 - (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
 - (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings."

CUBS' "HOME AWAY FROM HOME" IN ARIZONA

When baseball is in the air, but snow is still on the ground in the Midwest, the Chicago Cubs happily travel to the sunny Southwest each February to prepare for the rigors of the coming 162-game major league schedule. The Cubs began training at Scottsdale, Ariz. in 1967. "The West's Most Western Town" boasts plenty of the primary ingredients needed for training: Moderate temperatures and plenty of sunshine.

Scottsdale is located in the famous "Valley of the Sun" near booming Phoenix, Ariz., the largest city in the great Southwest. The sun shines 86 percent of the daylight hours and the humidity rarely climbs above 20 percent—ideal circumstances for a spring training site.

The Cubs are one of seven teams that make up the so-called Cactus League, and one of four teams that train in the immediate Phoenix area (See inside front cover for location of other training bases).

Complete Facilities Make-Up Training Base

The parent club holds its spring workouts and plays its "home" spring games at Scottsdale Stadium, Osborn Road and Ball Park Plaza, just two blocks from downtown Scottsdale. The playing field is full-sized and of major league quality. The grandstand seats 4,200 fans.

Adjoining the playing field at the Stadium is a half-diamond—a complete infield to supplement the main field. Just a short distance from the Stadium a second, complete area is located for use by the Cubs' minor league clubs. It consists of complete locker facilities for the more than 100 aspiring young players who train there, as well as two full diamonds, another half-diamond, and a battery of batting cages.

Here players assigned to Cubs' farm teams at Wichita, Kan., Midland, Tex., Key West, Fla., or Bradenton, Fla., learn new skills which will prepare them for their seasons and hopefully one day help them to big league careers.

Winter Instructional Team Uses Same Base

Scottsdale Stadium is not just used for spring training by the Cubs. Each October, a team made-up of young players from every team in the organization convenes for a special training session called the "winter instructional camp." As in spring training, Scottsdale Stadium is home base for the winter instructional team, and it plays home games there against similar teams from other major league organizations.

Official hosts of the Cubs in Scottsdale are the "Charros," a group of civic-minded young businessmen associated with the Chamber of Commerce. Named for the gentried Spanish horsemen of a bygone era, they handle ticket sales, maintenance arrangements for the Stadium, and a myriad of other details attendant to spring training.

WRIGLEY FIELD—HOME OF THE CUBS

The Chicago Cubs have always made it a point to provide fans with the best possible facility in which to watch major league baseball in comfort and convenience, but at the same time, to retain the rich heritage of the Cubs and Wrigley Field. One of the few remaining parks in the major leagues that was designed for the sole purpose of playing baseball, Wrigley Field is still a place where fans are close to the action. This has not changed, even though the Cubs have spent more than $5,135,000 in recent years in improvements and modernization projects, excluding expenditures for each year's regular maintenance.

More than a half century of baseball tradition is present within the ivy-covered walls of Wrigley Field. After all, here is where Babe Ruth made his famous gesture toward the bleachers before slamming a homer there, where the Cubs' famed "murders row" of Rogers Hornsby, Hack Wilson, Kiki Cuyler, Riggs Stephenson, and Charlie Grimm pounded opposing pitchers, where Grover Cleveland Alexander, Dizzy Dean, Claude Passeau, Charley Root, Larry French, and Bill Lee toed the pitching rubber. Even in this day of instant communications, the Cubs still maintain the tradition of flying a flag bearing either a "W" or an "L" from atop the scoreboard after a game to inform passerby of the outcome of the day's contest.

Early History of the Park

The Cubs moved to the present North Side location for the start of the 1916 season. The site had been the playing field for the Chicago Whales of the short-lived Federal League, which operated in 1914-15. The Cubs played their first game on the present site April 20, 1916, defeating Cincinnati 7-6 in 11 innings. The seating capacity was originally 14,000.

First major improvements were made in 1922-23 when the grandstand was moved back and enlarged, increasing the seating capacity to 20,000. Next, the park was double-decked in the winter of 1926-27, nearly doubling the seating capacity. During the summer of 1937 improved bleachers were constructed. Then, in 1938, wide chairs were installed in the boxes and grandstand. This added to fan comfort, reducing the park's total capacity by several thousand.

During the early years, the park was known simply as Cubs' Park. Then in 1926 it was officially named Wrigley Field in honor of William Wrigley Jr.

In recent years, the lower grandstand in right field was turned-in so that fans sitting down the right field line would face home plate; the entire upper deck was completely re-constructed (in a 4-year project that began in the winter of 1967-68 and was completed in the winter of 1970-71); and plastic, self rising, contour seats were installed in the lower deck reserved seating area, replacing folding chairs; along with many other improvement projects.

The Flags of Wrigley Field Tell a Story

At all Cubs home games Old Glory flies from the centerfield mast-head, highest point in the park. The flags of the 12 National League cities, 8 States, and Quebec fly at the Clark St. entrance.

Before and during each game, 12 pennants, one for each National League Club, fly from the yardarms in the order of the standings of each division on the morning of the game—the first place team in the East Division at top left, and the West Division leader at the right.

The Chicago Cubs flag—red and white on a blue background — displays 16 red stars representing the Cub's 16 National League Championships. The two blue stars represent the Cub's two World Championships.

Public Transportation is Easy and Convenient

Located at Clark and Addison Sts., 3600 North, 1000 West, Clark St. buses (No. 22) and Addison buses (No. 152) take you to main gates. CTA Rapid Transit trains ("L" and subway) take you to ¼ block from the ball park (Addison St. station). All northbound and southbound trains on the North-South Rapid Transit route stop at Addison on days of all Cubs home games throughout the season.

Ticket Information and Prices

Reserved seat tickets for all games are available by mail. Just send your order to Ticket Manager, Wrigley Field, Chicago, Ill. 60613. Available on the morning of every home game are more than 21,000 general grandstand and bleacher seats, for which no reservations are needed.

Reserved tickets can be purchased in advance at the Wrigley Field Ticket Office (Addison and Sheffield) and at Bond's downtown store (234 S. State St., near Jackson).

Reserved box seats are $4.50 for adults and children. Reserved grandstand seats are $3.50 for adults and children. General grandstand seats are $2.50 for adults and $1.25 for children under 14. Admission to the bleachers is $1.25.

EDWARDS

WICHITA

Howard "Doc" Edwards is 2-for-2 in promotions within the Cubs' organization. He joined the Cubs in 1975, managing Midland to a co-championship finish in the Texas League. In 1976 Edwards will manage the Wichita Aeros in the American Association. A catcher, Doc played for four clubs: the Indians, the A's, the Yankees, and the Phillies. He completed his active career with the Phillies in 1970, and remained with the club as a coach until 1972. A former medical corpsman in the United States Navy, Doc managed the Yankees' farm team in West Haven, Conn., for two years before moving to Midland.

MIDLAND

Young players under the leadership of a young manager! This will be the 1976 format for Midland, the Cubs' farm in the Class AA Texas League. Following the promotion of Doc Edwards to Wichita, 35-year-old Dennis Sommers was named to manage Midland. Dennis has managed for the past nine years in two Class A leagues and one Class AA. His 1975 Lafayette (La.) Club shared the Texas League championship with Midland, the seat of Sommers' new operations.

HIATT

POMPAÑO BEACH

Jack Hiatt played 66 of his 483 major league games with the Cubs before concluding his eight year career in 1972. Besides the Cubs, Hiatt caught for the Angels, the Giants, the Expos, and finally the Astros. After a player-coach role with the Wichita Aeros under Mike Roarke, Jack was named manager of the Cubs' Bradenton, Florida club in the Rookie League in 1975. He also managed the Cubs' team in the Arizona Instructional League last fall in earning promotion to the Pompano Beach Club in the Class A Florida State League this year.

BRADENTON

This is Walt Dixon's 27th year as a minor league manager as he moves to his fourth club within four years. In 1973 Dixon skippered Quincy, Ill., moved to Midland in '74; Key West (Fla.) in '75; and now to Bradenton. An astute leader and teacher, Walt launched his pro career as a pitcher in the Red Sox organization in 1940. Ten years later, he started managing, and joined the Cubs in 1957. The Bradenton Club has rookie class status, enabling Dixon to do what he enjoys most: working with youngsters.

ADAMSROVING INSTR.

Bobby Adams spent 14 years in the major leagues prepping for his present position: teaching the art of infield play to the young players in the Cubs' farm system. The Cubs were one of 4 clubs Adams played for in the majors. The others were the Reds, his original club; the Orioles, and the White Sox. In 1966 Bobby moved into the executive end of baseball, serving 6 years as president of the Cubs' Tacoma club, and one at Midland. Bobby returned to the field in 1973, and is presently in his fourth season in his new role.

BANKS*ROVING INSTR.

Few people in professional sports log more miles than Ernie Banks in his continuing role as roving hitting instructor in the Cubs' farm system. In this manner the suave "Mr. Cub" shares his knowledge about hitting with the young players assigned to the Cubs' four minor league teams. Ernie reached the climax of his incredible career May 12, 1970 when he hit his 500th home run, and went on to collect a career total of 512. Banks made National League history when he won back-to-back MVP awards in 1958 and '59. Mr. Cub's defensive finesse enabled him to win Golden Glove awards at shortstop and first base.

REISER*ROVING INSTR.

Pete Reiser was 21 years old when he won the National League batting championship in 1941 with .343. Five years later he stole home seven times to establish a still-standing major league record. The man they call "Pistol Pete" did two stints as a Cub coach, staying four years the first time, and two seasons the next time. He's presently starting his third season as a roving hitting and outfield tutor in the Cubs' farm system. During his thrill-filled playing career with the Dodgers, Reiser twice led the N.L. in stolen bases.

ROARKE*ROVING INSTR.

Mike Roarke debuts in a brand new role this year as a roving instructor for pitchers in the Cubs' farm system. Mike brings 10 years of major league experience to this position, having been a four-year catcher, and a three-year coach for the Tigers. He also coached for the Angels for three years. Roarke launched a five-year tenure managing in the high minors with Toledo in 1971. Still associated with the Tigers, he moved to Evansville in 1972 and 1973, winning the American Association championship in 1972. Mike's first year with the Cubs' Wichita club was 1974.

CUBS CELEBRATE CENTENNIAL SEASON WITH NATIONAL LEAGUE

The Chicago Cubs will celebrate its 100th season as a charter member of the National League. The Cubs are proud of the fact they have maintained a franchise in the same city longer than any organization in the major leagues.

While there are many plans underway to salute the bicentennial of the United States and the centennial mentioned above, several projects have already been completed through baseball and are available to the fine Chicagoland fans. For example:

"THE GAME OF THE CENTURY" is a 30-minute color film documentary narrated by movie actor and keen baseball fan, William Conrad. It includes all 12 National League teams and is available free to groups contacting the Information and Services Office at Wrigley Field.*

"A BASEBALL CENTURY" is a 256-page coffee table book by Rutledge Publishing Co. covering the 100 years of the National League. It is a high quality publication written by many well-known writers which will be offered about May 1 to the public by MacMillan Professional Magazines, Inc for $19.95. Naturally, it is a hard cover book, and it has 64 pages in color.

COMMEMORATIVE COINS are being offered by Medal-art Company, the official medalist for the centennial baseball coin. Four different medallions are being struck for interested coin collectors from a small bronze one for approximately $1.00 to a larger sterling silver collector's edition for about $75.00. For details, write the National League Office, 220 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, California 94104.

*Also available in 16mm color/sound film are All-Star Games, World Series games and various All-Star instructional films.
